

1. This scripture is clear, we need one another, and we are going to need help. What makes it hard for people to reach out, when it is clear that help is needed? What is the cause of isolation and separation?

2. God created people to be in a relationship with Him and with each other. There are advantages of partnerships for God's people and our personal well-being. Describe how your relationships, are a benefit to you spiritually, emotionally, and mentally.

If they are now, how is two better than one in this case?

3. This small group series is called "Make Your Life Count." How are you making your life count with your relationships? Intentional is defined as deliberate, on purpose, voluntary, and intended. This means your relationships require every one of these words to be put into action to be a significant help to one another. What kind of relationships have you built in your personal life, and in your church community?
